A Special Thank You

The children of Sexton Mountain, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Ferraro and the school staff would like to thank Diane Holste for her gift of reading.

For five years Diane has come in each Monday morning before school and read to students in the library. Her calm demeanor, expressive delivery and great stories helped to start the day for many of our students. In addition to reading, Diane also chaired the Sexton Mountain book fairs during the spring and fall each year. We will really miss her dedication and enthusiasm as she moves on to middle school with her son Derek.

Thank you, Diane. Please come back and visit.
